PEACE OF MIND DOG RESCUE
HELPING PAW CLIENT AGREEMENT

Peace of Mind Dog Rescue (hereinafter called POMDR), a California non-profit charitable corporation, enters into an agreement with _____ (hereinafter called "Client") to provide assistance while Client is either temporarily or long term unable to care for his or her dog(s) due to illness, hospitalization or other similar incapacitating circumstances. Assistance may include, but not restricted to, walking/feeding dogs, administering medication, transportation to/from veterinary and grooming appointments. In the event of Client being hospitalized or otherwise needing out-of-home care, POMDR's assistance may include temporary fostering of their dog(s).

The assistance given Client by POMDR will be subject to review every three (3) months.

POMDR will provide assistance through the use of its network of volunteers. Each volunteer assigned to assist Client will receive up-front training on the specific requirements of Client.

POMDR will provide assistance in good faith and all efforts will be made to ensure that proper care and safety is given Client's dog(s). Should Client's dog(s) become ill, be involved in an accident, pass away or experience any other problem while in the care of POMDR, Client agrees to hold harmless POMDR and its volunteers from any liabilities, costs, damages, or losses resulting thereof.
